The National Centre for Australian Children's Literature brings you Sharing Stories

Sharing Stories celebrates Australian children's books and translations. For the first time in Australia, you can explore 191 children's books in 50 different languages from 61 member countries of the International Board on Books for Young people (IBBY) plus IBBY Australia's 48 Honour books. Throughout Canberra, Libraries ACT will be displaying IBBY Australia's Honour books. Free entry unless noted.
